

Sharon M. Weinstein, MS, RN, CRNI-R, FACW, FAAN, CSP

Sharon is an energetic, motivating and highly skilled professional speaker and author specializing in work/life balance. After all, she wrote the book. She is the founder of SharonMWeinstein, an LLC and two not-for-profits.

She holds the coveted Certified Speaking Professional (CSP) designation, the highest earned international recognition for professional speakers. This makes her one of only 12% of all speakers to hold this designation and one of only 22 nurses in the world with this credential.

With over three decades of global healthcare experience, speaking, training, and real-life, firsthand business experience, Sharon Weinstein negotiated her way into The Kremlin Hospital and convinced leadership to turn over a patient care unit so that she could create an International Department. Sharon is recognized globally for her ability to advance negotiations at all levels, create a stress-free work environment, and engage employees.

A past president of the Infusion Nurses Society and past chair of the Infusion Nurses Certification Corporation, she is best known as the author of Plumer's Principles and Practice of Infusion Therapy, the award-winning B is for Balance, and Go for it...Mastering Negotiations.

She rode a camel in Cairo, was a delegate to the Women's Conference in Beijing, designed the foreign patient department at the Kremlin Hospital in Moscow, and played with the penguins at Phillip Island Nature Park, Australia.
